

GLOBAL Technology Awards

Recognizing and celebrating innovation

For the fifth year, the GLOBAL Technology Awards will recognize the very best new innovations in the printed circuit assembly and advanced packaging industries.

An opportunity to showcase your products and services

Entries are invited from all equipment, materials and EMS companies. The competition is open to all sizes of companies. Entries will be judged by an independent panel based on the following criteria:

- Innovation
- Speed/throughput improvements
- Quality contribution
- Cost benefits
- Environmental consideration
- Ease of use/implementation
- Maintainability/repairability

Awards mean exposure

In addition to the award statue, to be presented to winning companies at a ceremony held during this year's Productronica, winners receive publicity in a special awards issue of each edition (US, Europe, China & Korea) of Global SMT & Packaging magazine as well as on the Global SMT & Packaging and GLOBAL Technology Award websites and in the Global SMT & Packaging email newsletters.

Winners also receive a small poster for use at trade shows and an image and logo for use in advertising, websites and other promotional materials.
